Notification No. R. Dis. 1 of 38-39, dated 9th July 1938.

Under the provisions of Part X of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1911, and with the previous sanction of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, the High Court hereby makes the following amendment to Rule 7 of Order XLVII of the said Code:—

In Rule 7 of Order XLVII for sub-rule (1) substitute—

(1) An order of the Court rejecting an application for review shall not be appealable; but an order granting such an application may be objected to on the ground that the order was made (a) in contravention of the provisions of Rule 4, or (b) on an application which was in contravention of the provisions of Rule 2 or which was presented after the expiration of the period of limitation prescribed therefor and without sufficient cause.

Such objection may be taken at once by an appeal from the order granting the Application or in any appeal from the final decree or order passed or made in the suit.
